

Coconino Loop

This challenging loop through Coconino County treats you to some of the best trails in Northern Arizona, including segments of the AZT, and a taste of the red rock (and mystical) world of Sedona. Full guide at <http://www.bikepacking.com/routes/bikepacking-coconino-loop/>

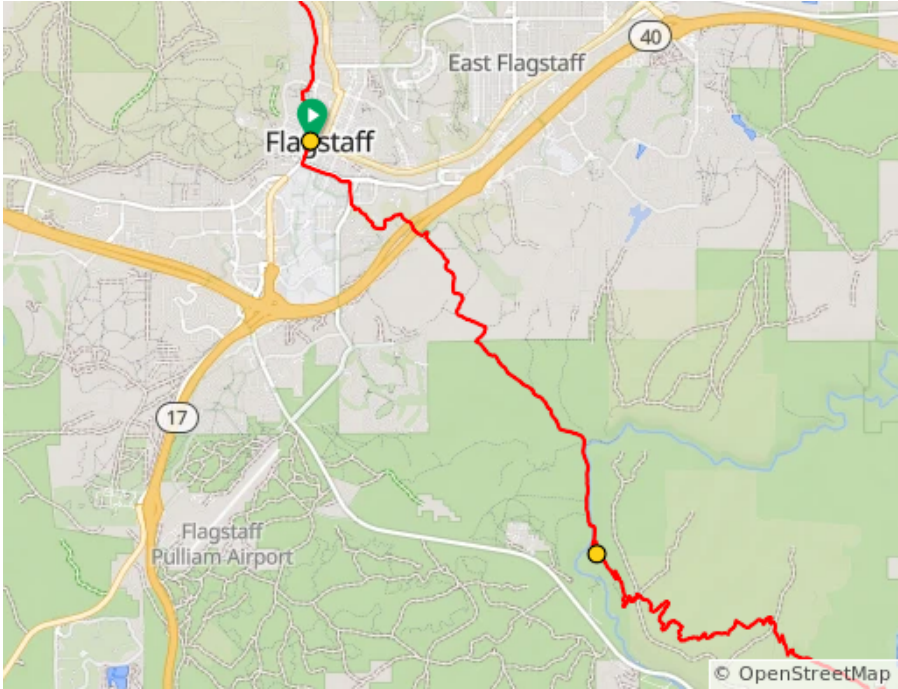

Points of Interest

A.	Lumberyard Brewing	I.	Gate here. Closed to motorized use.
B.	ADOT Little Antelope Maintenance Yard Spigot	J.	spigot
C.	Schnebly Detour	K.	Gate
D.	Whole Foods	L.	Verde River
E.	Oak Creek	M.	If you dont want to ride the singletrack up, take the road.
F.	Oak Creek	N.	Plenty of food options on Route 66
G.	Dead Horse Ranch State Park	O.	Gas Station
H.	Plenty of resupply options	P.	Pilot Travel Center

Coconino Loop

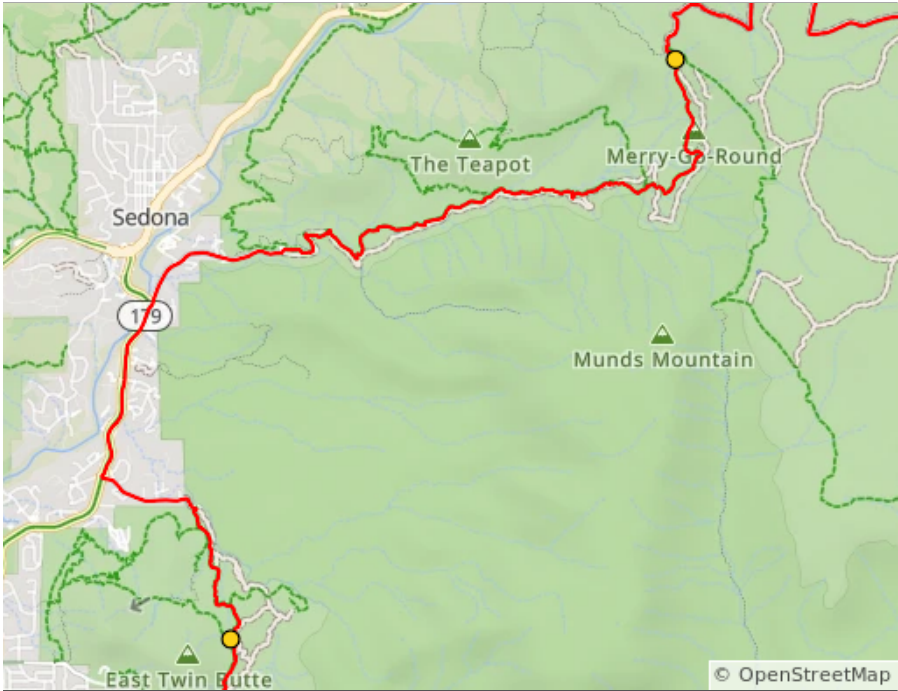

Num	Dist	Prev	Type	Note	Next
1.	0.0	0.0	📍	Start of route	7.1
2.	7.1	7.1	↩	Keep L onto AZT - Walnut Canyon	46.6

7.1 miles. +421/-506 feet

Num	Dist	Prev	Type	Note	Next
3.	53.7	46.6	↗	Sharp L onto Schnebly Hill Trail, 158	7.4
4.	61.1	7.4	←	L to stay on Broken Arrow Trail	6.9

54.0 miles. +502/-1559 feet

Num	Dist	Prev	Type	Note	Next
5.	68.0	6.9	↗	Keep R onto Templeton Trail, 156	165.6
6.	233.7	165.6	➡	R onto Moto Trail, TR 430	0.3

172.5 miles. +16731/-13364 feet

Num	Dist	Prev	Type	Note	Next
7.	233.9	0.3	↙	Sharp L onto Poker Loop Trail, TR 430A	6.2
8.	240.2	6.2	📍	End of route	0.0

6.5 miles. +73/-551 feet

